

IMPORTANT

(1) You are informed that this continuous Discharge Certificate should be produced and handed to the Shipping Master or Ambassador when signing Articles of Agreement so that the engagement column may be filled in, and the Certificate given into the safe keeping of the Master.

(2) Should you desert or fail to join, your book will be deposited with the Shipping Master or Ambassador at the port where you left the ship, who will retain it for a fortnight from the date of the vessels sailing, at the end of which time it will be forwarded to the Director General of Nigerian Maritime Administration & Safety Agency, 4 Burma Road, Apapa, Lagos, Nigeria. Upon your applying for your book it may be returned to you, containing an entry in the discharge and character columns, that the voyage was not complete; but if you have willfully, or through misconduct, failed to join your ship your book may be withheld and you may be refused copies of Certificate of Discharge or certified extracts of any particulars of service and character.

(3) Should you lose this book otherwise than by shipwreck, you will not obtain a new one until next discharge and a fee will be chargeable; but you may obtain at once, by applying and forwarding the official fee, an extract from the Agreement and Official Log Books of the vessels in which you served, showing service and character.

NOTE: Should this Certificate come into the possession of any person to whom it does not belong, it should be handed either to the Superintendent of the nearest Seafarers Services Sub Office, or be transmitted to the Director General, NIMASA, 4 Burma Road, Apapa, Lagos.
